

III. How to select your role in ORS

Data Entry/Field Officer	You belong to an appealing organization (United Nations or NGO) based in the field and you want to report on ORS. You can view all projects entered by your organization and submit achievements on them.
Country Cluster Lead	You belong to an appealing organization (United Nations or NGO) based in the field, and you have the function of Country Cluster Lead . You have rights to submit reporting, select country indicators, validate achievements submitted by organizations, import data into the system and generate custom reports.
Regional Cluster Lead	You belong to an appealing organization (United Nations or NGO) based in the field, and you have the function of Regional Cluster Lead . You have rights to submit reporting, select regional indicators, and generate custom reports.
OCHA Field Staff	You are the database administrator at field level. You can view and edit all data, upload achievements on behalf of other organizations and approve/reject/restore achievements on behalf of the Cluster Lead.